Upcoming New Contract Tool
• In early spring, the Graduate School is rolling out the new online contract creation and approval system that all departments will be required to use for creating new contracts. For more information on this tool and a link to it, please see our webpage here.
• Continuing in January, we will conduct training sessions for all Graduate Program Coordinators and any other staff involved with the issuing of contracts. Please contact Sue Kass at sjkass@vt.edu if you are not yet signed up for a session and would like to attend.
• More information will be shared about roll-out dates and the retirement of the current contract-creation tool as details get finalized.

Early Termination Refund Policy
Should a student for any reason leave the assistantship appointment before the end of the contract, he/she may be responsible for a portion of the tuition. The table specifying the student’s and department’s tuition responsibility can be found on the student’s contract and on the Managing Assistantships page of our website under Performance/Resignation/Termination.
